She has issued five solo albums on the Nonesuch label

as well as Sing Happy with the New York Philharmonic on Decca Gold. She also maintains a major career as a concert artist, regularly appearing on the great stages of the world and with leading international orchestras. She is a founding member of Black Theatre United, a board member of Covenant House International and a prominent advocate for LGBTQIA+ rights, whose favorite roles are those performed offstage, as an activist, wife to actor Will Swenson, and mother.

Andy Einhorn

MUSIC DIRECTOR AND CONDUCTOR

From: Houston, Texas.

Upcoming film and TV projects include Apple TV+'s Extrapolations and Cabrini.

Jeremy Jordan

PIANO

From: Chicago, Illinois.

LA Opera: debut.

About: Critically acclaimed, "a clear technical virtuoso", "a rare talent", and "a true Wunderkind," Jeremy Jordan burst onto the music scene at the age of nine, playing Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 1 in a live televised performance. Jordan was born into a musical family where his mother and father were his first instructors. They ensured that his burgeoning talent was nurtured by providing a strong foundation in classical training and also encouraged his study of improvised music and composition.

Jordan went on to appear on the acclaimed radio program From the Top and From the Top: Live from Carnegie Hall performing Liszt. Since then, Jordan has made his solo Carnegie Hall debut performing Chopin, Liszt, Schubert and Wagner. After winning the 2006 Steinway Concerto Competition playing the Prokofiev Piano Concerto No. 1, Jordan delivered acclaimed performances with the Ars Viva Symphony Orchestra and concerto performances and recordings with the Chicago Sinfonietta and the Czech National Symphony Orchestra.

Following studies at The Juilliard School, Jordan received undergraduate and graduate degrees on the Van Cliburn and Irene Diamond scholarships. Acclaimed for his virtuosic deliveries of his Liszt/Horowitz, Wagner, and Saint-Saens transcriptions, Jordan has also performed to thunderous applause in appearances at the United Nations Arts Council, the American Liszt Society, Concertgebouw, Tokyo Opera City, Prague's Rudolfinum, and Chicago's Ravinia Festival. He has appeared as a chamber musician in tours throughout North America, Europe, and Japan.

Jordan continues to compose solo piano music, chamber music, orchestral music and electronic music. His compositions have premiered at Seattle's Emerald City Music Festival, New York's National Sawdust, and Ireland's Sounds from a Safe Harbour.

Gene Lewin

DRUMS

From: Princeton, New Jersey. LA Opera: Audra McDonald concerts in 2013, 2018 and 2023.

About: Gene Lewin appears on 38 CDs, with several more soon to be released. His eclectic discography ranges from the modern jazz of Fundementia to the electric-violin pop of GrooveLily. Several jazz and theater projects, and singer-songwriter efforts round out the list. Gene played drums, sang and composed for GrooveLily, a trio that was together for 20 years and toured extensively in the U.S. and Canada. While they morphed through many different musical scenes (and hair styles), they eventually became focused on creating hybrid musical theater; performances that feel both like concert and story. The band's credits in this area include a production of Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream (directed by Tina Landau), Striking 12 and the autobiographical show Wheelhouse.

Gene has been touring with Audra McDonald since 2005. He also performs periodically with Kelli O'Hara, Sophie B. Hawkins and many well-respected singers and instrumentalists in New York City's jazz scene. He has appeared on CDs with bassists John Patitucci and Scott Colley, guitarists Ben Monder and Steve Cardenas, jazz legend tenor saxophonist George Coleman, bassist/vocalist Jay Leonhart, and many others.

After graduating from Princeton University with a degree in electrical engineering and computer science, Gene soon changed paths and returned to school to receive a master's degree from the Manhattan School of Music in 1991. He sends love to wife Suzanne and sons Elias and Jacob.

Mark Vanderpoel

BASS

From: San Diego, California.

LA Opera: Audra McDonald concerts in 2013 and 2018.

About: He is a graduate of the University of California, San Diego, where he studied with Bertram Turetzky, and he holds a master's degree from the California Institute of the Arts. Symphonic credits include performances with the San Diego Symphony, American Symphony Orchestra, Manhattan Philharmonia and various ensembles based in the Baja California region of Mexico.

His 40+ theater credits include Hello, Dolly! starring Bette Midler, Legally Blonde, Rogers + Hammerstein's Cinderella, See What I Wanna See, Guys and Dolls, the PBS special A Broadway Celebration on In Performance at the White House, Jane Eyre, Woody Allen's Bullets Over Broadway and An American in Paris, among many others. His stage and sideman credits include collaborations with Audra McDonald, Kristen Chenoweth, Kelli O'Hara, Nancy Sinatra, Victoria Clark, Shirley Jones, Cliff Richard, Deborah Voigt, Sandra Bernhard, Clay Aiken, Taylor Hicks, David Johansen, Sigur Rós, Jeff Beck, Richard Klein and Andrea Bocelli, as well as appearances on The Late Show with David Letterman and America's Got Talent.
